This coming Sunday is Mother's Day and of course we will be having our Parent Child Dedication Service as part of our morning worship. This is always an important time not only for each family, but also for the church family. During this time of commitment, we as a "family of faith," make a covenant with the parent and child that we will pray for these families and also provide resources for them, so that parents might be supported in their role to educate and train their children in our faith in Jesus Christ. The Bible is clear that the primary place and responsibility for teaching the next generation about Jesus is in the home. With this in mind, I am going to begin a new sermon series for the next 5 weeks entitled "Family Matters." This series will focus not only on the role of the parent, but also the role of the child, as well as marital issues. I hope that you will plan to be a part of all of these weeks of worship as we consider "Family Matters." The following will be our focus:

Family Matters

- May 9th Mother's Day –Parent Child Dedication
 Teach Your Children Well
 Deuteronomy 6:1-9
- May 16th Every Family Needs Only One God
 Deuteronomy 6:4-5

- May 30th A Faith to Remember
 2 Timothy 1:3-7

Adult Ministry & Missions

Rev. Hal Melton, hmelton@tbcraleigh.com

Senior Adults are a critical foundation for a growing church family like Trinity. Roberta and I helped start a new church when we moved back to Wake County in 1986. It was made up solely of young and middle aged adults and their children. Woodhaven was like a family without grandparents. The only true seniors were the start up pastor, Dr. Tom Bland, and his wife Eunice. Without their wisdom and guidance, our infant congregation's development would have been severely stunted.

I so appreciate being part of a church that celebrates its Baptist Heritage as well as its own personal heritage. We are so privileged to still have some of the original charter members who met to form a new church in 1955 when I was only two years old. They have known the difficult years of having too few members to do all the volunteer jobs that must be done... when each member wore many different hats and wondered if new members would have the interests and skills needed to wear some of those hats.

Today, all of us are enjoying the fruit of these senior saints' lives. One of the ways we say "thank you" is to celebrate Baptist Heritage and Senior Adult Sunday. The seniors did a fine job of leading us in worship Sunday. I really enjoyed our PrimeTimers Choir led by Davis Bowen!

I want to say a special word of thanks to our Senior Adult Coordinator, Dorothy Petty, who shepherds most of the ministry and missions of these saints. She strives to maintain a balance of fun, fellowship, health, leisure, study and missions. It is, without a doubt, the best organized and operated ministry to seniors I have ever witnessed. We are truly blessed by everything from Dorothy's organizational skills and creativity, to her homemade chicken salad. Many of our mission teams wouldn't have the energy to do their jobs without her skill in cooking for a crowd...and I'm not talking about continental breakfasts or quick and easy dinners! Thanks so much, Dorothy!!

Also, I appreciate our Adult 5 Sunday School Director, Buddy Murray for maintaining the wonderful tradition of an "assembly" time before the seniors Sunday School classes begin. Through his efforts, in addition to Peggy Masteller at the piano, Harry Gentry getting reports on the sick and sharing other prayer concerns, and Jane Sauls greeting the visitors and guests, our seniors care for each other in a beautiful way. They know well the value of hospitality, fellowship, loving care and life-long spiritual growth. Adult 4 has no assembly, but Director JD Wooten stays in close touch with his teachers and represents their interests well. More and more members in Adult 4 are recognizing that at Trinity, it's not at all a bad thing to be a "senior adult"! Hurray!!!

Here's to our blessed Trinity Senior Adults... may they live long, enjoy health and happiness, and teach the rest of us out of the storehouse of wisdom and experience that comes with the privilege of their years!

Final Sunday of Emphasis

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to the PrimeTimer Choir and to the PrimeTimer Trio for their worship leadership this past Sunday as we celebrated Baptist Heritage Day. These folks work very hard each week to present music for worship and ministry, and I'm grateful for Davis Bowen for his leadership of the PrimeTimer Choir. I know you join me in appreciation for their commitment and hearts for ministry.

Our Young Musicians did a fantastic job with BORN TO WORSHIP this past Sunday evening. A lot of hard work and memorization went into this presentation, and we are grateful for leaders like Tonya Zucker and her excellent staff of leaders who made this possible for the children. Thank you for a great year of music!

Parents, our Children's Choirs continue through May until May 26. This is our Coopers BBQ and Missions Fair, and our choirs will be singing as a part of the night. Please keep your children plugged-in even though their choirs have presented their music in worship and in concert!

The Raleigh Baptist Association Children's Music Camp is just around the corner! Auditions for speaking parts and solos will be held on May 6th from 6:30 pm - 9:00 pm at the Raleigh Baptist Association, 4105 Poole Rd, Raleigh. Please contact Peggy Holland at 872-2508 to schedule your child's audition. The Camp dates are June 21-24, 2010 from 9:00 am - 2:00 pm daily. The concert is June 24 7:00 pm at New Hope Baptist Church. Registration Deadline: June 1, 2010

Words of Gratitude from Jenny Lee

After nearly three years of ministering at Trinity Baptist Church, my time here has ended. In a few short weeks I will begin work as the new Minister to Students at First Baptist Church of Asheville. I leave here feeling many different emotions- excited, anxious, terrified, joyful, ready, sad- but mostly thankful.

I am thankful because my time here has equipped me for beginning this new ministry. The health and vibrancy of Trinity Baptist Church has become well-known across the state. I have gained valuable experience that will benefit me greatly in the future.

More importantly, I am thankful for the relationships that we have built over the past three years. Living far from my family in a world almost entirely made of college-aged students, you became my family. You are part of my life and I will miss you all greatly.

At the beginning of the year, I decided to consecrate 2010 as the year of eucharisteo- the year of giving thanks. This is the word the Bible uses to describe what Jesus did with the cup when he instituted the Lord's Supper. He gave thanks and then he shared with the disciples, his friends. Living in Eucharist, means to give thanks in community. In the past weeks and months, you have given me so much for which I am thankful. You are my friends and my family; you have made me glad.

I wish you many blessings. I'll be praying for the TBC Student Ministry as you search for the new Student Ministry Associate, Andy and the SMAC and SLT as they serve and lead you, and for you as my friends.

Blessings,
Jenny Lee

What is Extended Teaching Care (ETC)?

What is Extended Teaching Care or as it is better known around Trinity – ETC? ETC is a very important and vital ministry provided for preschoolers and their families during both worship services each Sunday as well as other special worship services throughout the year.

Did you know?

- ETC is the first impression parents have of our church and the last impression preschoolers have of our church.
- ETC is the largest ministry in our church and requires more volunteers than any other ministry.
- ETC is a valuable opportunity to minister to preschoolers by continuing to lay foundations for their faith in Jesus Christ.
- ETC is an important opportunity to minister to the parents and families of preschoolers by providing them the chance to attend worship.

In the next few months you will be receiving calls to ask if you will serve in ETC or if you will continue to serve in ETC. When you are called, please prayerfully consider what is being asked of you.

Teaching Opportunities

The Nominating Committee is now in the process of filling positions for the fall. When you are called, please prayerfully consider what is being asked of you.
