Respectable Sins: Confronting the Sins We Tolerate

Sept. 12 - Nov. 21 • 6:00 - 7:00pm • Room B236

Facilitated by: John Durden

Have Christians become so preoccupied with the major sins of our society that we have lost sight of our need to deal with our own more subtle sins? Author Jerry Bridges returns to his trademark theme of holiness and addresses a dozen clusters of specific "acceptable" sins that we tend to tolerate in ourselves - such as jealousy, anger, pride, unthankfulness, and judgmentalism. The author writes not from a height of spiritual accomplishment but from the trenches of his own battles with sin. He offers a message of hope in the profound mercy of the gospel and the transforming grace of God as the means to overcome our subtle sins.

September 16 - November 4 • 7:00 - 9:00pm • B236

Book Cost: $12

Facilitator: Lisa Dale

A common question of many Christians is, "How can I know when God is speaking to me?" Priscilla uses the account of God speaking to Samuel in 1 Samuel 3 to show how God speaks to Christians and how we can discern His voice and position ourselves to respond. In this exciting adventure, participants will discover how God spoke to Samuel, Samuel's response, and how God speaks to believers today; they will be encouraged to listen and respond to God's voice; and by listening to God's voice and obeying, women will experience spiritual growth, Christian discipline, and the desire to serve.

Music Ministry

Rev. Steve Byers, slbyers@tbcraleigh.com

Special thanks to The Trinity Laymen for their music in worship Sunday morning as well as their concert of music on Sunday evening, but we also thank you for your dedication to rehearsal and service throughout the entire year, too! We also thank Southern Grace for joining The Laymen in singing in the worship services and in concert Sunday night. It was a very special blessing to hear the three girls sing once again!

The Laymen would like to thank Jon Dees for his work at the sound board this past week in worship and during their concert. Jon and all of our sound technicians have done a tremendous job giving sound support to our musicians as they proclaim the good news of Christ in song.

Parents of Children and Youth, please take a look at the music calendar for starting times of choirs at Trinity. Kick-off Night is August 25...come and register for a great choir year here at TBC.

Our two vocal ensembles, Living Praise and New Covenant, begin on September 1. These ensembles present music for worship and in seasonal concerts throughout the year as well as engage in community ministry outside of Trinity. These are wonderful areas to serve in, meet new friends, and especially learn to use your talents for God. Living Praise rehearses each Wednesday at 6:30 pm and Joy Blashaw is the director of the group. New Covenant rehearses each Wednesday at 7:00 pm and Jessica Isaacs is the director of this ensemble. Mark your calendars, join a choir, and enjoy the fun we have making music together!

There's Always Room for You in a Choir at Trinity!

Come Grow with Us!

If you have been looking for a place to serve, we can help you find a place in one of our choirs or ensembles.

Words from Andy

Many of our college students and adults had an opportunity to spend time with the Yakima Native Americans of Washington two weeks ago. It was a great learning experience for all of us as we got to know the people of Yakima Nation and their unique culture.

Most of mainstream culture does not think of Native Christians when it comes to including them in the Body of Christ. It seems that the Church has neglected the Native Church and have allowed them to be forgotten. Even further, many would believe that Native Americans are pagans for their cultural beliefs.

Our college students witnessed the fact that God has always been at work in midst of the Native Americans. Many in the Yakima Nation love God and serve him faithfully. They have unique ways of worshipping Jesus that fit their own traditions. We were able to participate in Native dances and traditional feasts, all in the name of Christ. Through our experiences, I can tell you that our God is alive and well in the Yakima Nation!

Thoughts For Parents...

Children Entering Kindergarten

August 29th is a big day for our children entering kindergarten. This is the day they will be attending Worship, some for the first time. Please be patient and understanding as they wiggle and whisper while discovering how to worship in the sanctuary. This is a wonderful and stressful time for parents as their Kindergartners are learning about worship. Having our children in the worship service is important because this is where worshipping God is modeled by his/her parents and the congregation. This is an opportunity for all of us to be good examples to these children.

New Beginnings A Class for New Parents

Wednesday, September 15
6:30pm • Room E131

This class is offered to young parents and will explain the philosophy, procedures and organization within our Preschool and Children's Ministry. Our class is called "New Beginnings" because for many it is a new beginning in your adult life as you begin caring for a young infant or child. If you are a parent or are interested in learning more about the function of our preschool area, please join us for this special class.

ROC Volunteers Needed

The ROC can not exist without Trinity volunteers. The volunteers that work at the ROC do an amazing job of being the face of Trinity to all those who use the ROC. They even fill in when called upon to fill open slots on the permanent calendar.

Through the North Hills Visioning Team's recommendation, we have expanded the hours at the ROC on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 3-6pm. We have also added the hours on Wednesday nights after Bible study. These hours will start back the beginning of September 2010. We need a few volunteers to fill a few vacancies. Let Rev. Spencer Good know if you are interested in filling one of these slots by calling the church office or email at sgood@rocraleigh.com.

Please consider volunteering and helping us reach the community for Christ through the Recreation Outreach Center.
