Taking the Next Step...

Dr. Jeff Roberts, Senior Pastor • jroberts@tbccraleigh.com

I want to remind the women of our church of the Women's Renewal Weekend, which is March 18-19. This Friday evening and Saturday morning celebration is a great time for the women of our church to come together, meet other women, and be inspired through fellowship and worship. This year's speaker is Paula Rinehart. Paula is a popular speaker in churches, conferences, and college campuses. Her theme this year is "Better Than My Dreams." Paula maintains that what God has in store for us is more than we can ever imagine. Our guest worship leader and soloist is Cindy Johnson. Cindy has been with us on several occasions. Her wonderful inspiring music and servant heart make her one of Trinity's favorite guests. She will bring energy and passion to the weekend. Please remember to find one of the brochures and register or you can call the church office for details. You can register for the whole weekend or just Friday or Saturday. You can also register at the door if you do not plan to eat at the luncheon on Saturday.

This coming Sunday begins our observance of the Season of Lent. If you were like me then you did not observe Lent growing up in a non-liturgical Baptist church. However, I am so glad that many Baptists as well as other non-liturgical evangelicals have rediscovered the importance and usefulness of this Christian season. Lent is a time to reflect on our sins and the immense gift of God's grace. It is a time to prepare our hearts and lives for the celebration of the Easter Season. I have many times commented that as Baptists we have simply stumbled on Easter without much forethought. Lent is a time for us in worship and private devotions to ask the Holy Spirit to search our hearts and help us confess our sins and choose repentance. During Lent, we will have a special time dedicated in worship for silence, prayer, and confession. I hope that you will take advantage of this moment and others to prepare your heart and life for the celebration of the resurrection.

During Lent, I will be preaching on the "I Am" passages from the gospel of John. This week we begin our series with the statement "I am the Bread of Life." Join us for the beginning of this series and the First Sunday of Lent.

Words from Lydia

This week begins the traditional season of Lent in the Christian calendar. Lent is the season leading up to our celebration of the resurrection of Christ on Easter Sunday. It is a time where, for centuries, Christians have reflected on the weight of their own sin in light of Christ's atonement on the cross.

We begin the season on Ash Wednesday with a service that culminates with the "Imposition of Ashes." Throughout human history, as a way of outwardly showing grief and mourning, people have heaped ashes upon their heads. Likewise, Christians begin their journey to the cross on Ash Wednesday by receiving ashes in the sign of the cross on their foreheads. This is not meant to be an easy symbol to take on, but it is an imposition on our normal, everyday lives.

This Lenten season, we will all be walking the way of redemption toward the cross. Each Wednesday, we will experience our faith in new and different ways through experiential worship services. We are happy to invite Ashley Stephenson and David Teeter, a husband and wife duo, to lead us in song, as well as, give us the soundtrack for worship as we each journey through unique prayer stations that are designed to help us grow closer in our relationship with God. Much love, prayer, devotion, and time has gone into preparing these six weeks of our Lenten journey. I hope to see you all there and moved by the Holy Spirit who is always in our midst. Grace to you all, Lydia.

Thoughts For Parents...

Did You Know?

As babies play near each other, they may seem to be playing together. But they are not, their play is known as parallel play. Babies may sit near each other and even imitate each other. However, babies are not mature enough to play with other children; they will do this when they get older. Playing together involves sharing and cooperating. This time at church is utilized to share Bible Truths with the babies.
